

Social Emotional Environment

Does your classroom environment support preschooler's social and emotional development? Complete the following environment checklist as a self-check. Document the things that you are doing well as well as the areas that you could improve. Discuss your reflections with your co-teacher, administrator, or instructional coach.

THE CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT PROVIDES...	YES	NO	SOMETIMES	REFLECTIONS
Routines that are structured, consistent and predictable.
Visual schedules for children that need additional supports.
A balance of individual activities, small group activities and large group activities.
Centers that allow for multiple children to engage & interact.
Family style meals that encourage interaction and conversation.
Materials and toys that require social interaction.
A space where children can go to calm/regulate themselves.
Activities that intentionally help children to develop emotional literacy.
